

Private Residence Newry, Maine

This project can be described as a new duplex residence, located in the Resort Development District of Newry, Maine. Both units include a living room, dining room, kitchen, three bedrooms, bathrooms, den, laundry, and rec room. The units were designed to have full basements, with the potential for a walk out on the downhill side of the lower unit. Additional spaces include a mudroom, exterior deck space, and utility and storage.

Rustic Duplex Residence